“(TOADSTAR)’s songs are undeniably catchy, while still being clever, and shockingly original(...) something not easily done in these days of cookie cutter music”

- Rick Torres | Guitarist from Supreme Beings of Liesure

They came in heavy, with a vintage Rock n Roll spark and a dramatic flare. To keep it short and sweet, they sound like a lot of classic and 90's rock acts combined together with a modern feel and hardcore sound to it. The four of them have a slightly blues/traditional-inspired style, unique to them, that they like to call, “sex rock”. That is, in the words of the guitarist, “Because it fucks”.

They're here to keep rock n roll fun, and they're starting in LA. They're locals, they have great attitudes, a great sound, a devout following, and they also look really cool on stage. It's TOADSTAR. What's not to love?
